

ICB-level

ICB NAME: Nottingham and Nottinghamshie ICB
--	--

#	Self-assessment question	Confidence level	Detail of local risks, mitigations and planning Please summarise your approach to planning for junior doctors strikes for each question item
1	Confidence that you will be able to maintain the ability provide effective Command and control for your system for the duration of the industrial action (72 hours)	High	We do not anticipate that the industrial action will have any impacts on the ICB's ability to provide effective system command and control
2	Confidence that you expect to be able to maintain staffing of your system control centre for the duration of the industrial action (72 hours)	High	The System Control Centre staffing will not be affected by the industrial action
3	Confidence that you expect to be able to maintain the ability to provide any directly commissioned or provided services for the duration of the industrial action (72 hours)	low	Unable to confirm at this stage whilst providers are working through the potential impact and mitigating actions
4	Do you plan to have Health and Wellbeing support available to all staff during this period?	Yes
5	Are cross-ICB mutual aid mechanism are available / being put in place to support affected Trusts?	Not applicable	All trusts affected. Mutual aid being considered as part of plans.
7	Do you have you any geographical or sites of particular concern?	Yes	NUH/SFH/Bassetlaw Hospitals. Impact TBC
8	Do you arrangements in place to contact and enable the immediate return to work of all appropriate staff in the event a major incident is declared?	Not applicable
9	Does your ICB (and Trusts) have a plan to understand the impacts of industrial action upon health inequalities in your areas, and are these impacts factored into your plans for recovery?	Yes
10	Do you have plans to ensure staff covering the work of junior doctors during strikes have received the training they need (e.g. IT, skills updates)	Not applicable
11	Do you have arrangements in place to disucss planning for junior doctor strikes with local BMA and HCSA representatives	Not applicable	