Integrated Care System
Nottingham & Nottinghamshire

FOI – Bowel and Bladder Continence

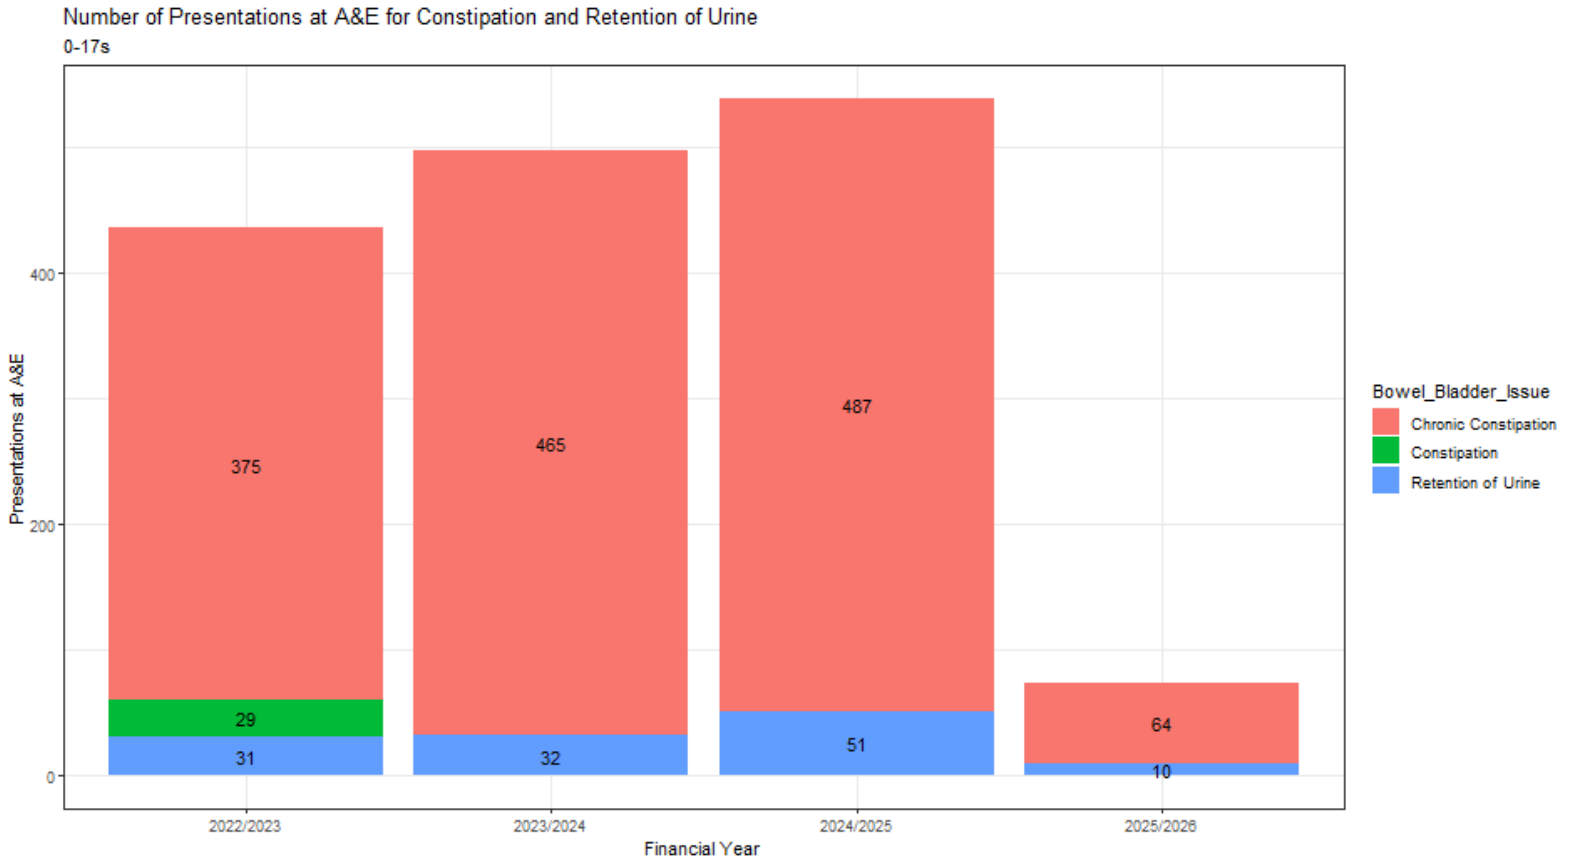
Report produced by the Nottingham and Nottinghamshire ICS System Analytics & Intelligence Unit

June 2025

SAIU
SYSTEM ANALYTICS INTELLIGENCE UNIT

A&E Attendances

- The plot on the right shows the number of presentations at A&E for constipation and retention of urine for children aged 0-17 registered with a GP in Nottinghamshire.
- By financial year, the highest number of presentations was in 24/25, with 487 presentations for chronic constipation and 51 for retention of urine.
- Overall, chronic constipation had significantly more presentations at A&E compared with constipation and retention of urine.



A&E Attendances by PBP

- The plot on the right shows the number of presentations at A&E for constipation and retention of urine for children aged 0-17 registered with a GP in Nottinghamshire, by PBP.
- Nottingham City had the highest number of presentations with at least 220 presentations within a financial year, compared with 14-24 in Bassetlaw, 16 – 84 in Mid Notts and 137 – 165 in South Notts.
- Generally, chronic constipation represented the majority of presentations for each financial year, apart from 22/23 in Bassetlaw which was all for constipation.

A&E Attendances by PBP

- The plot on the right shows the number of presentations at A&E for constipation and retention of urine for children aged 0-17 registered with a GP in Nottinghamshire, by Provider.
- NUH had the highest number of presentations, with at least 340 presentations within a financial year, compared with 0-12 at BDH and 0-81 at SFH.
- At NUH, the majority of presentations were for chronic constipation, whereas at BDH it was for either constipation or retention of urine.