Dear Requestor

Re: Freedom of Information Request

Thank you for your request for information, received on 10 January 2025 with an updated request on 13 January 2025, regarding local vasectomy services. We have processed your request in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

Under the FOIA, public authorities like ours are required to respond to requests for information within 20 working days. In response to your request, I can confirm that we partially hold the information requested. However, please note that some of the information you requested has been withheld. Under the FOIA, certain exemptions may apply to protect sensitive information.

Please find below our response to your request:

I request the following information please in reference to local vasectomy services.

1. Does the ICB offer a local vasectomy service?

Yes.

2. If yes please provide tariff value?

The ICB is unable to share this information as it is deemed commercially sensitive under Section 43 (2) of the Act.

Section 43 of the Act states that:

(1) Information is exempt information if it constitutes a trade secret.

(2) Information is exempt information if its disclosure under this Act would, or would be likely to, prejudice the commercial interests of any person (including the public authority holding it).

(3) The duty to confirm or deny does not arise if, or to the extent that, compliance with section 1(1)(a) would, or would be likely to, prejudice the interests mentioned in subsection (2).

A public interest test was undertaken on 28 January 2025 in response to your request made under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

The Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) sets out public interest factors in favour of and against disclosure. Some of the factors in favour were as follows:

- Ensuring that the public authority can be held accountable for its decisions, particularly as to how it spends public money.

- Ensuring that a tender process is open and transparent.
- Providing insight into the nature of a procurement process and winning bids, so that other companies are encouraged to take part in the process and improve future bids.

Public interest factors against disclosure (and in favour of the maintenance of an exemption) included:

- There is an inherent public interest in the maintenance of the exemption, and of upholding private companies' expectations that commercially confidential information will be protected from disclosure when they engage in public authority tenders.
- Avoiding the discouragement of prospective tenderers from tendering for public sector contracts, for fear of disclosure of their commercially sensitive information to competitors, and that this may adversely affect both the quality of tenders for public sector contracts, and public authorities' ability to negotiate them effectively.
- Maintaining a competitive market and driving competition as this benefits public authorities and consumers, and which could be threatened by disclosure of companies' commercial information.

On balance of the factors considered above, along with relevant case law, we considered that the ICB would be entitled to withhold the locally agreed tariff values for the local vasectomy services and that this would not be superseded by public interest considerations.

3. Is the tariff inclusive or exclusive of post semen analysis?

Inclusive.

4. Is the service on a cost and volume or block contractual basis?

Cost and volume.

5. If a block contract please provide details on the block value? Furthermore, please provide details on the indicative activity set to inform the block contract value?

N/A.

6. Is/are there any exception(s) of offering vasectomy services in the community within your ICB? For example individual funding request? activity caps? Or excluded and restricted procedures?

N/A.

7. Are the providers of the service GPs? Community Trusts? Single provider? Or a combination? Please list if possible.

A single community provider.

8. If the ICB does not offer local vasectomy services please advise when this was terminated?

N/A.

9. Please provide the Vasectomy Service Specification.

Please see attached Vasectomy Service Specification, the names of individuals have been redacted in line with the Data Protection Act, Section 40 (2) has been applied.

Section 40 (2)

The ICB does hold this information however we are unable to provide the names and email addresses of the individuals as this information is personal information/third party personal
